Join Master Teacher Lauren Hickman for a lively presentation about creative ways to work with the “independent thinkers” we are privileged to raise.

Explore a new parenting approach based on Rudolf Steiner’s insights into child development, current research, and the practical experience of parents and teachers.

Enjoy our welcoming space for questions and concerns.

“Discipline” is an unpopular word for many democratic-minded, egalitarian parents who want their children to be able to make decisions for themselves. However, appropriate discipline is crucial to developing many of the values and traits these same parents hold dear. - Lauren Hickman
